Ladies enjoying Afternoon Tea in Victorian England

'Afternoon Tea' by artist Alexander Rossi

What is Afternoon Tea?

Afternoon Tea is a tea-related ritual, introduced in Britain in the early 1840's. It evolved as a mini meal to stem the hunger and anticipation of an evening meal at 8pm. It is a meal composed of sandwiches and scones with cream and jam. Interestingly scones were not a common feature of early Afternoon Tea and were only introduced in the twentieth century.

In Britain today Afternoon Tea is usually enjoyed as an occasional indulgence or to celebrate a special event such as a birthday, pre-wedding or baby shower party with a group of friends.

Whatever the occasion, we look forward to welcoming you to Lysses House Hotel for the ever so British tradition that is Afternoon Tea.
