A booking is only regarded as firm when the contract form has been signed and returned. If you arrive for a meeting where we have not received a signed contract, it will be deemed that you have accepted our terms and conditions. The bill will be prepared from the details on the contract or from the number of delegates on the day, whichever is greater. A booking may only be made by the hirer if over 21 years of age.

2. Deposit

If a deposit is required to secure a booking, failure to submit the required amount within 14 days will be treated as cancellation, although we will inform you and allow 24 hours to confirm before re-letting. We regret that deposits are not refundable or transferable.

3. Final Numbers

Anticipated numbers of attendance must be conveyed to the hotel at the time of booking. The final numbers are required no later than 72 hours prior to the start of the conference. This number will then be used to calculate the final invoice or alternatively the number attending if this is greater. If numbers are reduced by more than 20% of the original booking, we reserve the right to change the meeting room without prior notice – where applicable a lower room hire rate will be charged.

4. Additions

Small additions to numbers may be possible at the discretion of the Management at least 24 hours in advance.

5. Prices

All prices quoted include VAT (where applicable) at the appropriate rate. Whilst every effort is made to honour the prices quoted, Lysses House reserves the right to apply increases in the event of changes in Government legislation or tax rates. We will give a 20% discount (room hire only) on any booking made by a registered charity based on our current published rate.

Guests are not permitted to bring beverages of any kind onto the premises unless agreed in writing. In this event a charge may apply.

6. Settlement Terms

Balance of payment is required in full at the end of the conference. Credit facilities can only be permitted where arrangements have been made prior to the function. Settlement is required within 14 days of the event.

7. Start and End Times

All functions are required to conclude at the time agreed when booking as an extended time may not always be possible. If you require time to set up/dismantle, please include this in your room hire time.
